

Men of Love, Word and Sacrifice

“Imitating Jesus: Priest, Prophet and King”.

3rd. Hispanic Men’s Conference of the Detroit Archdiocese All talks will be in Spanish

Bishop Daniel Flores; Diocese of Brownsville, Texas

Until recently, he was one of the Auxiliary Bishops for the Archdiocese of Detroit and currently the new Bishop of Brownsville Diocese in Texas. Bishop Flores was ordained a Priest for the Diocese of Corpus Christi, Texas. Following his ordination he was appointed vice-chancellor and Episcopal vicar for the formation of priests. He was also vice-rector at St Mary’s Seminary as well as a theology professor at St Thomas School of Theology in Houston. Bishop Flores obtained a doctorate in Theology at the University of St Thomas in Urbe (Angelicum) in Rome. In 2006 he was named the first Hispanic auxiliary bishop in the Archdiocese of Detroit. At the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops he is a member of Faith Formation and Sacramental practices committee among many others.

Father Enrique Sylvester; Honduras

Not only is he a pastor who is very involved in his parish and community; Padre Quique is also a member of the Coordination Council for the community ‘Fortaleza de Dios’ (God’s Strength) in San Pedro Sula. He supports community Oasis del Señor at El Mochito, and works with Camino (an evangelization movement for married couples) that started in San Pedro Sula and has spread to many other countries in America.

Father Pablo Oggioni, Servants of Charity

He is a member of the Servants of Charity congregation, whose charisma is love, the care of the poor (especially those who have been abandoned), those that suffer psychological or physical disabilities, and those who are socially discriminated against. He has been a missionary in Paraguay and the Philippines. He currently resides in Springfield, PA, where he is working with the Hispanic community in the Philadelphia Archdiocese. Father Pablo has worked with various apostolic movements. He travels around the world spreading the Good News.
